LEGACY GIFTS

Make Holocaust education part of your enduring philanthropic legacy by including a gift to MCHE in your will, trust, or by beneficiary designation. Contact Jessica Rockhold at 913-327-8191 or jessicar@mchekc.org

Your donations provide the sustaining support for MCHE’s mission-based programming which includes:

- Honoring our local survivors and preserving their testimony, ensuring it’s use in educational programs and materials.
- Training and supporting educators teaching the Holocaust in grades 7-college.
- Developing new teaching materials designed to support remote learning as well as in-person instruction.
- Adult education programs including Lunch & Learn, the MCHE Film Series, prominent speakers and the MCHE Common Book.
- Annual commemorative programming including Yom Hashoah, Kristallnacht, and International Holocaust Remembrance Day.
- Ensuring that the lessons of the Holocaust – which demonstrate the extreme actions that bigotry and hatred can lead to – are taught throughout our region to people of all faiths and backgrounds.

Your gift allows us to retain our talented staff, continue to develop programs and teaching materials to address the changing needs of our community, and to maintain the infrastructure that makes this work possible.

Members and donors are recognized annually in the MCHE Annual Report.
